CONTINUATION TO PROGRAM...

Please join us right after the plaque ceremony at the Delaware Saengerbund's beautiful property at 49 Salem Church Road in Newark off State Road 4 which is only 10 minutes away by car from Pencader Museum (see map on flyer). Plenty of free parking available.

The ceremony will continue in our main hall (Deutsche Halle) with a lecture by our distinguished guest speaker, Dr. Robert A. Selig, who will speak about the Germans on all sides, including the German Americans who had already settled in the colonies in the late 1600s and 1700s, followed by a question and answer period and a reception with light snacks. Alcoholic beverages will be available for sale.

Please fill out the Audience Participation Form which is found at both the Pencader and Saengerbund locations and drop it off in the boxes that are provided. Thank you!

Finally, our thanks to history professor Kim Burdick who was our chosen Outside Evaluator for this event, and to Erin O'Brien, Grant Officer from Delaware Humanities, who helped guide our efforts to bring you this event.
