HARRISBURG, PA

Congratulations

In the Senate, July 8, 2008

Whereas, The Senate of Pennsylvania is always pleased to recognize those esteemed organizations which, through the observance of significant events in history, contribute to preserving the continuity of Pennsylvania's great heritage; and

Whereas, Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Inc., is observing the two hundred twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Paris on September 3, 2008; and

Whereas, On September 3, 1783, the peace commissioners of the United States and Great Britain signed a Treaty of Peace in Paris, which recognized American independence and boundaries, thereby ending the Revolutionary War. Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Inc., is sponsoring an educational symposium, entitled "The Treaty of Paris and Its Impact on the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania. The organization, along with the Founders and Patriots of America, will also rededicate a large bronze plaque honoring the Comte de Rochambeau and the French Army.

Now therefore, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania joins with Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Inc., in celebrating the two hundred twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Paris;

And directs that a copy of this document, sponsored by Senator Constance H. Williams, be transmitted to Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Route in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Inc.

Constance H. Williams
